

Center for American Studies Lecture Meeting
Joint sponsors: Graduate School of International Area Studies, Nagoya American Studies Association

From the Campaign for the Abolition of Slavery to the Protest Movement against the Vietnam War

—A Historical Approach to Understanding the Trump Administration and the Other America—

Speakers

Shinobu Uesugi

Emeritus Professor, Yokohama City University

United States of America, from the View Point of Protesting African Americans in the Rural South:

Why and How I wrote my recent book, *Harriet Tubman,
a Black Woman called Moses*,
Shin-yo-sha, 2019.

Daizaburo Yui

Emeritus Professor, Hitotsubashi University &
University of Tokyo

Anti-Vietnam War
Movements as a Contemporary History:
Focusing on my Book "Give Peace a Chance: the Crossing Voices of Anti-Vietnam War"

Commentators

Wakako Araki

Assistant Professor,
University of Niigata Prefecture

Masami Hirata

Associate Professor,
Nagoya City University

Date • Venue

December 7 Sat, 2019

14:00-18:30

Room R49, 4th floor of R bu7ilding

Contact

Center for American Studies
18 Yamazato-cho, Showa-ku, Nagoya 466-8673
Phone: 052-832-3111 E-mail: center-as@ic.nanzan-u.ac.jp
URL: <http://rci.nanzan-u.ac.jp/america/en/news/>

You can access to our website