

Seminar Sponsored by the Faculty of Foreign Studies, Nanzan University

“Rethinking the ‘Nation State’ Indonesia”

Date: March 17 (Sun) & 18 (Mon), 2019 Venue: Room Q51/52, Q building

March 17, 2019

13:00 Introduction: KOBAYASHI Yasuko (Professor, Nanzan University)

Session 1: Searching for a Concept of the Nation State Indonesia

1. “Islam and Nationalism: Analyzing Bintang Islam (1923-1930)”
KOBAYASHI Yasuko (Professor, Nanzan University)
2. “Nahdlatul Ulama's Discourse on the "Islamic State" in the Dutch Colonial Era:
Reformist Influence in the Traditionalist Muslims”
YAMAGUCHI Motoki (Researcher, Toyo Bunko)
3. “National History and the Creation of ‘the Nation’ :
History Books Published under the Japanese Military Government in Indonesia”
HIMEMOTO Yumiko (Research Fellow, Centre for Asian Area Studies, Rikkyo University)

Comment: AOYAMA Toru (Professor, Tokyo University of Foreign Studies)

Special lecture: "Local, National and Transnational Islam in Indonesian History"

Martin van Bruinessen (Emeritus Professor, Utrecht University)

March 18, 2019

Session 2: Difficulties in Nation Building

1. “Sukarno’s Dream and Design of ‘Pembangunan’ : Mid-1950s to Mid-1960s”
KATO Tsuyoshi (Emeritus Professor, Kyoto University)
2. "Hidden Conflict in Paradise: Mass Killing in Jembrana, Bali 1965"
KURASAWA Aiko (Emeritus Professor, Keio University)
3. “Failure of the Maphilindo Concept and the Split of Borneo: Experience of the Post-Bulungan Kingdom
OKUSHIMA Mika (Associate Professor, Tenri University)

Comment: OKAMOTO Masaaki (Professor, Kyoto University)

Session 3: Reconstruction of Chinese History in Indonesia

1. “Hakka Merchants and the Intra -Asian Trade”

KUDO Yuko (Researcher, Toyo Bunko)

2. “Kung Yung Pao and the Chinese Community in Java during the Japanese Occupation”

TSUDA Koji (Associate Professor, The University of Tokyo)

3. “Revisiting Understanding of Ethnic Chinese in Indonesia:
Based on Interviews with Indonesian Experts on China and Chinese Studies”

MATSUMURA Toshio (Lecturer, Hosei University)

Comment: SADAYOSHI Yasushi (Professor, Kobe University)