

Symposium Marking 160 Years of Diplomatic and Cultural Exchange between Japan and Germany:

Japan and Germany at the turn of the century: Literature, Religion and Nationalism

Opening remarks

Martin Eberts

(Consul General, The German Consulate in Osaka • Kobe)

Hiroataka Nakaya

(Chair of the Department of German Studies, Nanzan University)

Speakers

Esben Petersen (Assistant Professor, Faculty of Foreign Languages, Nanzan University)

The influence of German Theology on Modern Japan

Ikumi Waragai (Professor, Keio University)

Leaders of Modernization in Japan and their Trajectories: Building Human Networks to Europe

Richard Szippel (Emeritus Professor, Nanzan University)

Ottmar von Mohl and the Modernization of Japan in the Meiji Era:
The Activities of a German Advisor of the Meiji Court

Moderator Esben Petersen (Assistant Professor, Faculty of Foreign Languages, Nanzan University)

Date October 14, 2021 (Thu.) 11:05-12:45

Venue Zoom meeting
※ This lecture is only open to students and faculty of Nanzan University. Zoom Meeting Information is posted on PORTA.

Language Japanese
(Consul General only in German)

